

Abstract submission guidelines - ICTR-PHE 2016

Please use this Microsoft Word abstract template to prepare your abstract. Abstracts must be uploaded on the Indico page (<https://indico.cern.ch/event/392209/registration/register#/register>) no later than 31 October 2015.

Please rename the file RegID_FirstnameLastname.doc (with your details) before uploading it.

2. Abstract

Formatting:

File type: Microsoft Word
Font type: Verdana
Font size: 12 pt.
Line spacing: Single
Case: Use both upper and lower case in both title and body
Paragraph format: No initial indent, use blank line between paragraphs

Sessions for oral presentation:

- (1) Biology
- (2) Pre-Clinical and Clinical Strategies
- (3) Nuclear Medicine
- (4) Detectors and Imaging
- (5) New Technologies
- (6) Radiotherapy

Session (for oral presentation): (select only one from the list; session chairs might reassign to a different session if necessary)

Keywords: (up to 3 excluding session name):

Title of your abstract (max 100 characters; do not use non-standard abbreviations) (Underline the speaker's name)

Author names – Initial. Surname (order the authors as you would like them to appear)

Author Name¹, Author Name²

¹ (Affiliation 1)

² (Affiliation 2), etc.

Abstract text:

- Character limit (excluding spaces) = 2500
- Use paragraphs to create a structure of (1) Purpose (2) Materials/methods (3) Results and (4) Conclusions
- Special or unusual abbreviations must be placed in round brackets () after their first appearance
- One data table in JPG format is allowed in the body (excluded from character count)
- One colour image in JPG format is allowed, maximum file size = 500KB, maximum panel dimensions = 600(w) x 800(h) pixels;
- Equations can be inserted in the body as images (JPG only)